Based on 1 Thessalonians 5-11

Behaviour Expectations

All children start the day on 'Expected' and are expected to follow our Golden Rules.

Should a child move their name to 'Wobbly', they should work to get their name back into 'Expected'.

See 'Rewards and Sanctions' for follow up actions linked to the different Behaviour Expectations.

WOW

I am showing my own initiative to learning.

I am taking on additional responsibilities.

I have completed all additional challenges in lesson.

I have exceeded the expected standard of behaviour.

I have consistently followed instructions.

Expected

I am following instructions.

I am keeping hands, feet, and objects to myself.

I am using positive, appropriate language.

I am showing Friendship, Compassion, Trust, and Respect.

I am being truthful.

Wobbly

I am not following instructions.

I am disrupting the learning of others and myself.

I am not considering others feelings.

I am not showing respect to others or staff.

I am breaking our Christian Values.

Unacceptable

I am not following instructions after being given reminders.

I am not keeping hands, feet, or objects to ourselves.

I am using inappropriate language.

I am not telling the truth.
